

RYOSUKE KIYASU

AUDI

GARDEN SEAT #6

Ryosuke Kiyasu has been active as a snare drum soloist since 2003 and is also known as a drummer in Sete Star. Sept, Kiyasu

GARDE SEAT

Orchestra, Mr Keiji Haino's band Fushitsusha. He is also known as a founding member of The Endless Blockade in Canada. His solo performances have been featured on BBC News (UK national broadcaster) and VICE Magazine.
His performance in Berlin in 2018 was a bit hit on social media with over 23 million views. In 2022-2023 the world's largest classical percussion
Festival, 'Überschlag Festival, Dr Martens Fest 23, Outsider Art Festival in Finland and Alternativa Festival in the Czech Republic. He continues to travel around the world and perform in various places. In 2023, at the Edinburgh Art Festival in England, a short movie of his snare drum performance by a British director was shown as an exhibition and became a topic of conversation. He has also released a collaborative work with the Swedish apparel brand Our Legacy. He has released more than 200 albums, both solo and with his band (kiyasu.com).

An abstract artwork featuring a central rectangular piece of yellow paper with handwritten text. The background is a mix of white and red, with red splatters and yellow lines. A large, dark brown, scribbled shape is in the upper left, and a green scribbled shape is in the lower left. The text on the yellow paper reads:

Gigs or Trashcult
Poster

Ryosuke Kiyasu
Missing Time / Satisfied Time
$15.00

This very special release features an exclusive live performance of two improvised solo snare tracks recorded especially for Garden Seat.

Available at gardenseat.bandcamp.com

RYOSEATGARD E
NSUKE RYCTARO
DEN SUK LCTO RO
GTYOS VRENS FAR
YOSUKE GTYOSUKO
RYOSUGARSUKS
EATRVVSEAT
FARDEN SUK
SUKYGRSEKEY
RYOSUK KVA
SEAYKIYASUK
GARDKISEATK
TYEATSYO KIYOK

Ryosuke Kiyoshi, from Japan, takes his performance art around the world.

